2025 Bertram Berger Young Engineer Award Call For Nominations

The Transportation & Development Institute Boston Chapter is now accepting nominations for the 2025 Bertram Berger Young Engineer Award. The annual Bertram Berger Young Engineer Award serves to recognize an outstanding younger member of the Boston Society of Civil Engineers Section of ASCE for their professional achievements and service to the community. The successful candidate should (1) be less than 35 years old on January 1, 2026, (2) have attained exemplary professional achievements as a young engineer, (3) demonstrate leadership in the practice of civil and environmental engineering with emphasis on transportation, (4) enhance the stature of civil engineers within the community, (5) be active with professional organizations such as BSCES or similar, and (6) be a registered engineer, or has taken the professional engineer examination and applied to be a soon-to-be registered, professional engineer.

In addition to recognition within the engineering community, the award winner will receive a $2,500 stipend to be used for continuing education and/or professional development. The award winner will be announced and will be presented with the award at the upcoming annual BSCES Bertram Berger Seminar on Thursday, September 18, 2025.

To nominate an individual for the 2025 Bertram Berger Young Engineer Award, please submit a professional resume for the nominee and up to a two (2) page letter of nomination and narrative statement describing how the nominee meets the above-described criteria. Nominations will be accepted until 5:00 p.m. on Monday, September 8, 2025 and should be submitted via mail or e-mail to:

Nick Manz, Chair, Transportation & Development Institute Boston Chapter, c/o Howard Stein Hudson, 446 Main Street, Worcester, MA 01608, e-mail: nmanz@hshassoc.com, phone: (508) 500-7173.
